

Tom Jones

European Fine Art Photographer of the Year 2009

Tom Jones from Jones Photography in Knokke (Belgium) has won the European title of European Fine Art Photographer of the Year 2009. It is quite an honour that a Belgian photographer may receive this title. The award was given the 17th of December 2009 in the Fotomuseum in Antwerp (Belgium). This prestigious price, which had contesters out of 21 European countries, was given by the Irish chairman Neil Warner in presence of the Italian Chief Executive Officer Guisepppe Scozzi. After the winner announcement followed the opening of the exposition in presence of lots of foreign photographers.

On top of that, the winning pictures are exhibit during a travelling exhibition through all of Europe (Moscow, Madrid, Milan, Lisbon, ..), before that they can be visited from 17 dec until begin of January 2010 on the first floor of the Fotomuseum. (Waalsekaai 47, 2000 Antwerpen)
